

Census Data Update – Quick Facts

- Socioeconomic Data from Census comes from the American Community Survey (ACS)
 - American Community Survey (ACS):
 - Smaller Sample Size vs. Census 2000
 - Period Estimates
 - New Data Annually
 - Socioeconomic Data
 - Social Characteristics (Education, Disability, Language, Citizenship, etc)
 - Economic Characteristics (Income, employment, Benefits, etc)
 - Housing Characteristics (Tenure, Occupancy, Mortgage/Rent, etc)
 - www.census.gov → click on “American Community Survey”
 - Get Census Data from American Fact Finder (AFF) website:
 - www.census.gov → click on “American Fact Finder” –OR-
 - <http://factfinder.census.gov> → for ACS data
 - <http://factfinder2.census.gov> → for Census 2010 and Census 2000 data
 - Data Transition Schedule to the new AFF (factfinder2.census.gov):
 - Late Spring/Early Summer 2011
 - ACS 2005-2008
 - 2002 Economic Census
 - Annual Census Surveys
 - Mid/Late Summer 2011
 - 2007 Economic Census
 - 2009 ACS
 - Fall 2011 – Sunset of the legacy AFF
 - Census 2010 Data Release Schedule
 - Arizona Census 2010 Redistricting Data – by April 1, 2011
 - Summary File 1 – June 2011
 - ACS 2010 Data Release Schedule
 - Fall/Winter 2011
-