■ Municipal Aging Services Project Submitted to White House

- White House Office of Public Engagement and the Office of Social Innovation and Civic Participation will host urban innovators.
- Goal is to showcase new partnerships or technologies that are solving old problems.
- If selected the project would participate in an August 27th event.
- Municipal Aging Services Project was funded by the Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust and chosen by the MetLife Foundation as one of five projects in the nation for the City Leaders Aging in Place Project.
- Mayor Stanton is on the City Leadership Team. The project is overseen by the MAG Human Services Coordinating Committee.
