10:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Program

Please join us for a one-day workshop designed to connect the community to human services transportation solutions.

Judy L. Shanley Ph.D., Easter Seals Transportation Group, Office of Public Affairs, will present on national promising practices in accessible transportation. Engaging group discussions and a mobility workshop will offer resources to best meet the needs of those working with older adults, persons with disabilities, and persons with low incomes.

There is no fee for the event but registration is required due to limited space. To register or for additional information, please contact DeDe Gaisthea at dgaisthea@azmag.gov or call (602) 254-6300.

The event will be held at the Burton Barr Library, 1221 N. Central Ave, in Phoenix. The MAG Transportation Ambassador Program is made possible thanks to the support of the Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust.

Accepting Nominations for the 2012 Regional Excellence in Coordination Awards

The awards will recognize the organization or individual that has displayed tireless commitment through their work in human services transportation coordination efforts.

The four categories of awards include the following:

- Nonprofit organization
- For profit organization
- Public entity
- Overall champion

Please submit a one-page written nomination by June 1, 2012, indicating why a nominee should receive the "2012 Regional Excellence in Coordination Award". Submit nominations to DeDe Gaisthea by email at dgaisthea@azmag.gov or fax to (602) 254-6490. The candidate(s) chosen will be recognized at the TAP Regional meeting.
