

Maricopa Association of Governments (MAG) 2012 Domestic Violence Protocol Evaluation Project Webinars

The MAG Domestic Violence Protocol Evaluation Project is offering two webinar training sessions. These trainings provide an opportunity to hear from partners in law enforcement about innovative approaches they are using to address domestic violence crimes. Participants will gain knowledge through in-depth learning and discussion about topics around orders of protection and coordinated community response. These trainings are offered free of charge. They will consist of the same information presented during workshops at the 2012 MAG Protocol Evaluation Project Training Event on October 24, 2012. For more information, please visit the MAG website at <https://www.azmag.gov/Projects/Project.asp?CMSID=3780> or contact Renae Tenney, MAG Human Services Planner II, at rttenney@azmag.gov or (602) 254-6300.

Webinar 1 - Working Better Together: Coconino County Coordinated Community Response Team

Multi-disciplinary coordinated community response teams come together to share information, leverage resources, and build partnerships with the goal of increasing victim safety and offender accountability. These collaborative efforts are designed at the local level. This workshop will offer the opportunity to learn about best practices and lessons learned from a coordinated community response team.

- Presenters: Chief Kevin Treadway, City of Flagstaff Police Department; and Beya Thayer, MSW, Coconino County Coordinated Community Response Team to Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Coordinator, Northland Family Help Center
- Date: Tuesday, December 18, 2012
- Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
- Register: The webinar is free of charge. Please send an email request with Webinar 1 – Working Better Together in the subject line to Rachel Brito at rbrito@azmag.gov.
-

Webinar 2 - Technology Solutions: Connecting Systems and Improving Outcomes

Technology is a powerful tool for improving data sharing and communication throughout the criminal justice system. This workshop will identify inter-agency methods for accessing information using common technology. These advances will improve outcomes related to the service and enforcement of orders of protection across jurisdictional lines.

- Presenters: Commander Larry Farnsworth, Maricopa County Sheriff's Office; and Chief Steven Campbell, City of El Mirage Police Department
- Date: Thursday, December 20, 2012
- Time: 1:00-2:00 p.m.

Register: The webinar is free of charge. Please send an email request with Webinar 2 – Technology Solutions in the subject line to Rachel Brito at rbrito@azmag.gov.
