

SAVE THE DATES

Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Victim Services Conference: Three Movements, One Vision of Safety and Justice

September 22-24, 2014

Desert Willow Conference Center

4340 E. Cotton Center Boulevard, Suite 100

Phoenix AZ 85040

Join the Arizona Coalition to End Sexual and Domestic Violence (ACESDV) and the Arizona Coalition for Victim Services (ACVS) as we recognize 30 years of the Victims of Crime Act and 20 years of the Violence Against Women Act. The 2014 biennial conference "Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Victim Services: Three Movements, One Vision of Safety and Justice" will build on 30 years of services to victims and survivors of crimes. This conference is for sexual assault, domestic violence and other victim service providers, law enforcement, military personnel, prosecutors, faith community leaders, family support providers, Family and Child Advocacy Center staff, health care professionals and advocates working in communities of color. Conference tracks will include domestic violence, sexual assault, victim services and governance and administration; and workshops will promote best practices, unique approaches and collaboration among various disciplines.

Three Day Conference Fee Schedule:

Early Bird Member (by July 31) and Groups of 3 or more	$350
Early Bird Non-Member (by July 31)	$400
Regular Member and Groups of 3 or more	$425
Regular Non-Member	$475

More information will follow

Questions? Contact Yvonne@acesdv.org or Connie at avaacademy@gmail.com