

Southwest Valley Local Transit System Study

Presentation before

Greater Phoenix Region Aging in Place Network Conference

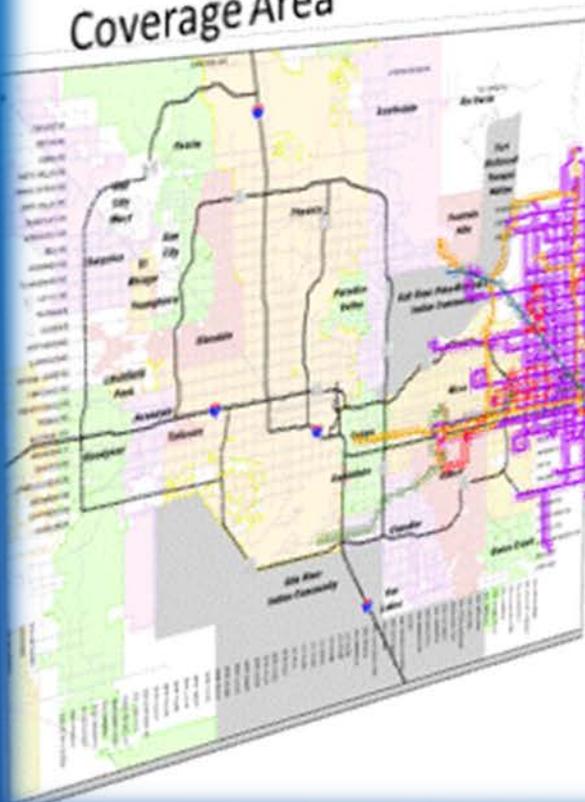

Connecting Caring Communities

May 14, 2013

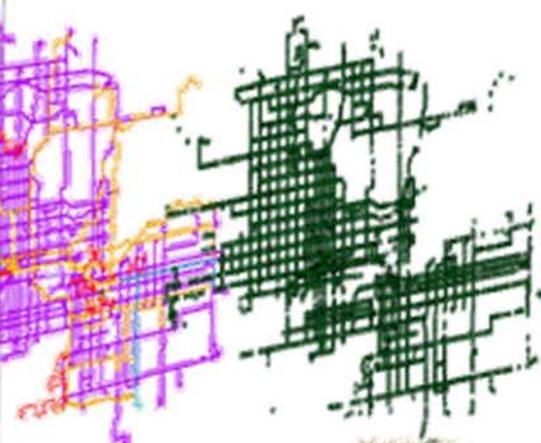

Transit in the Valley

Coverage Area

Transit Routes

Transit Stops

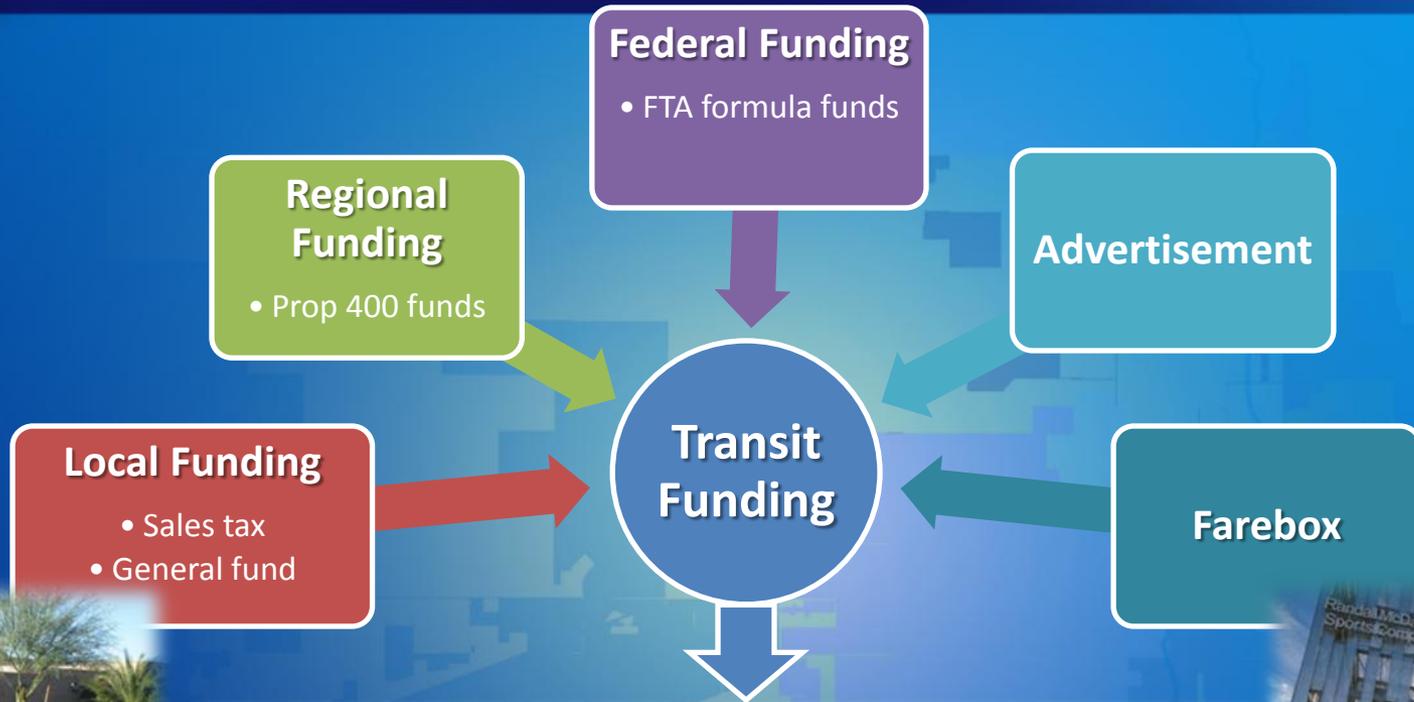

Public Park-n-Ride, Transit Centers, Maintenance Facilities

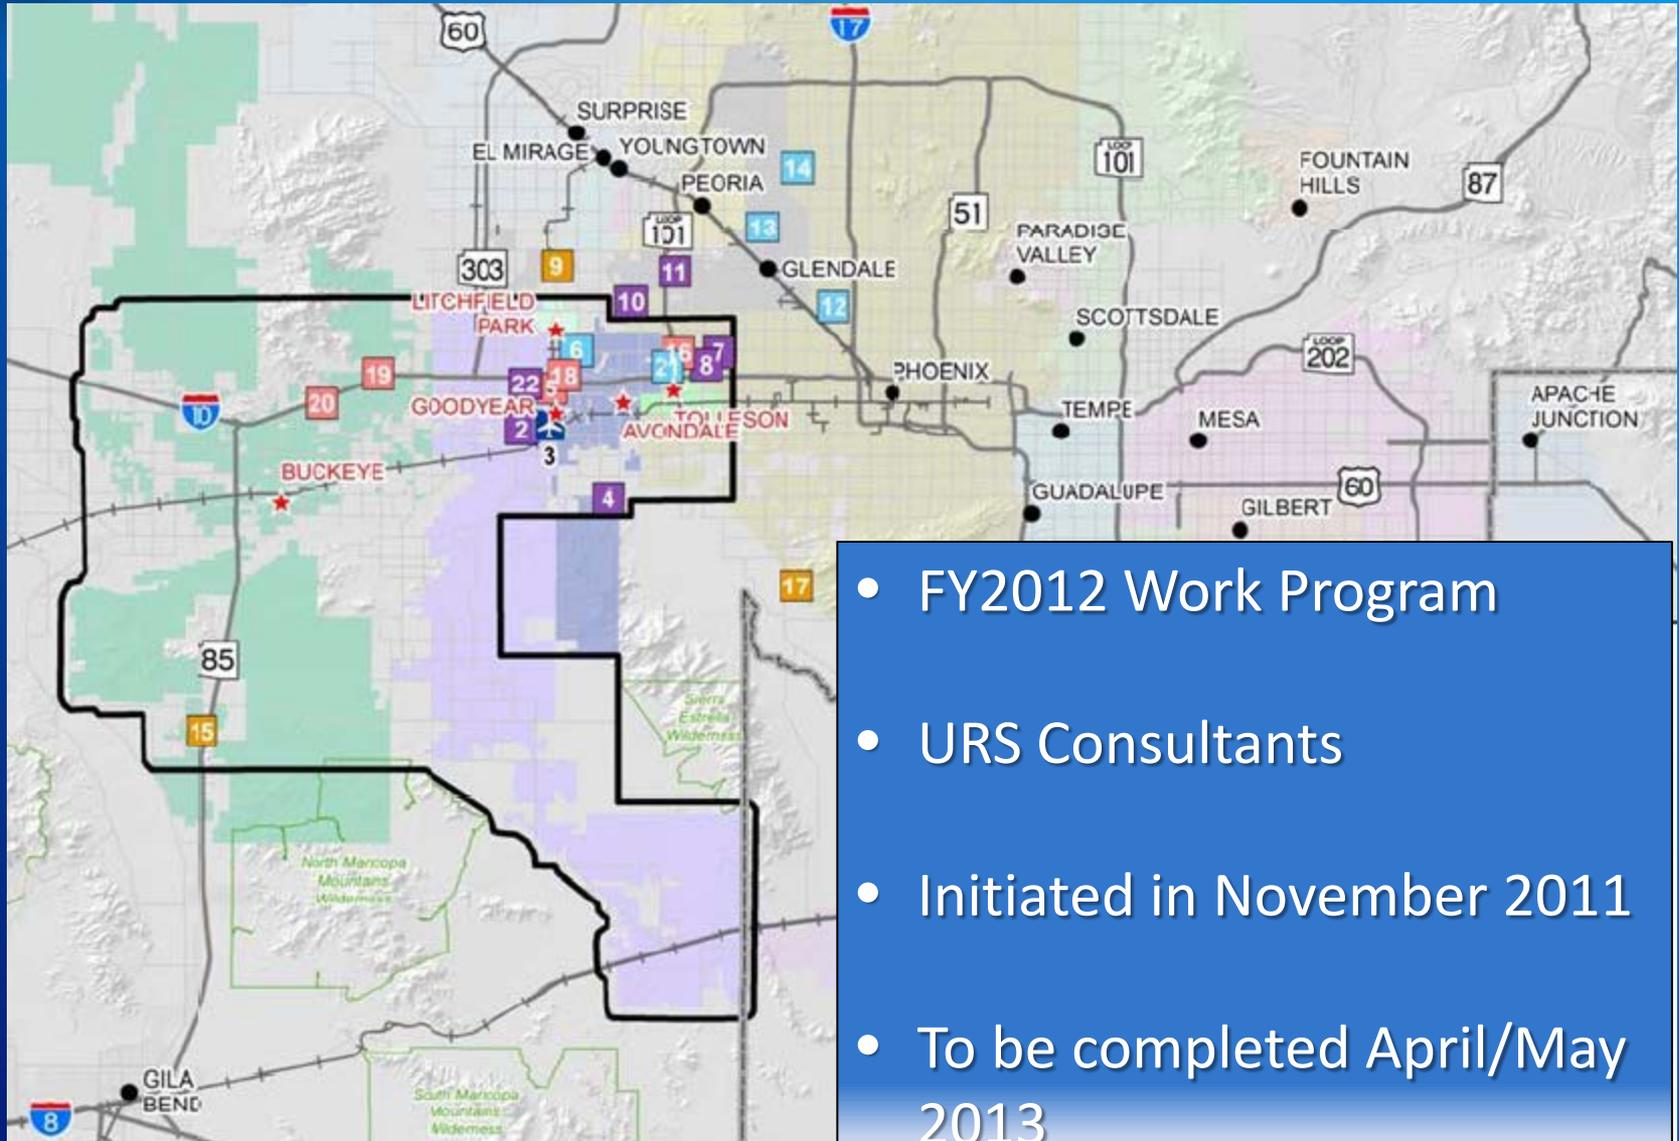

Transit Funding and Operations

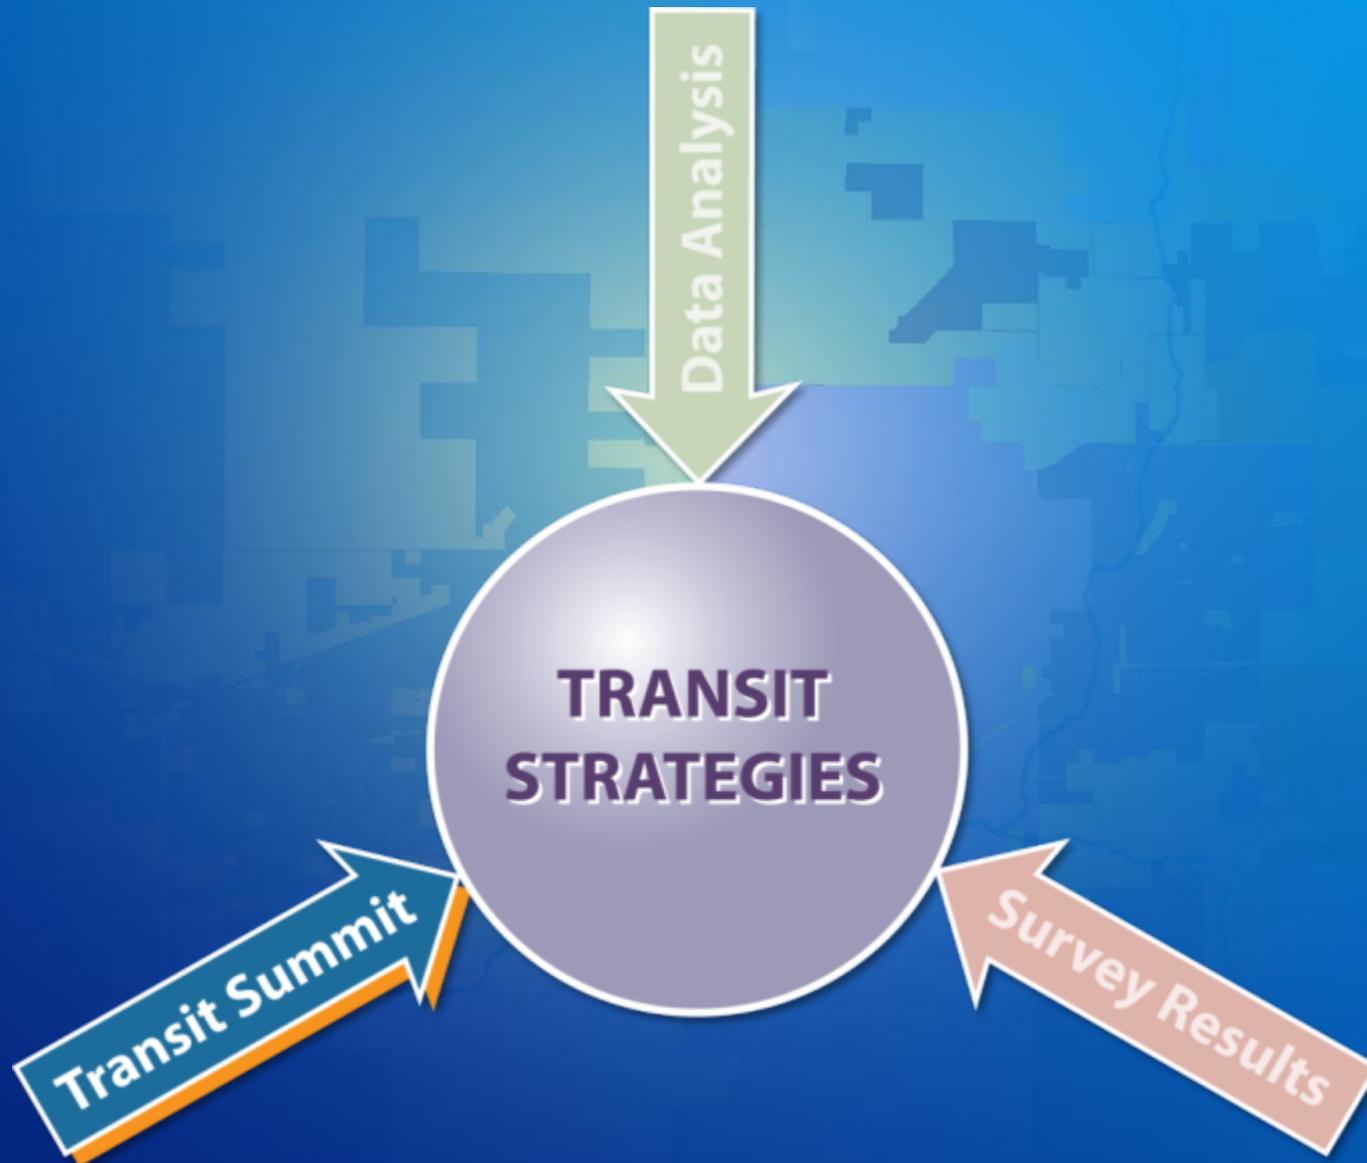

Study Area

- FY2012 Work Program
- URS Consultants
- Initiated in November 2011
- To be completed April/May 2013

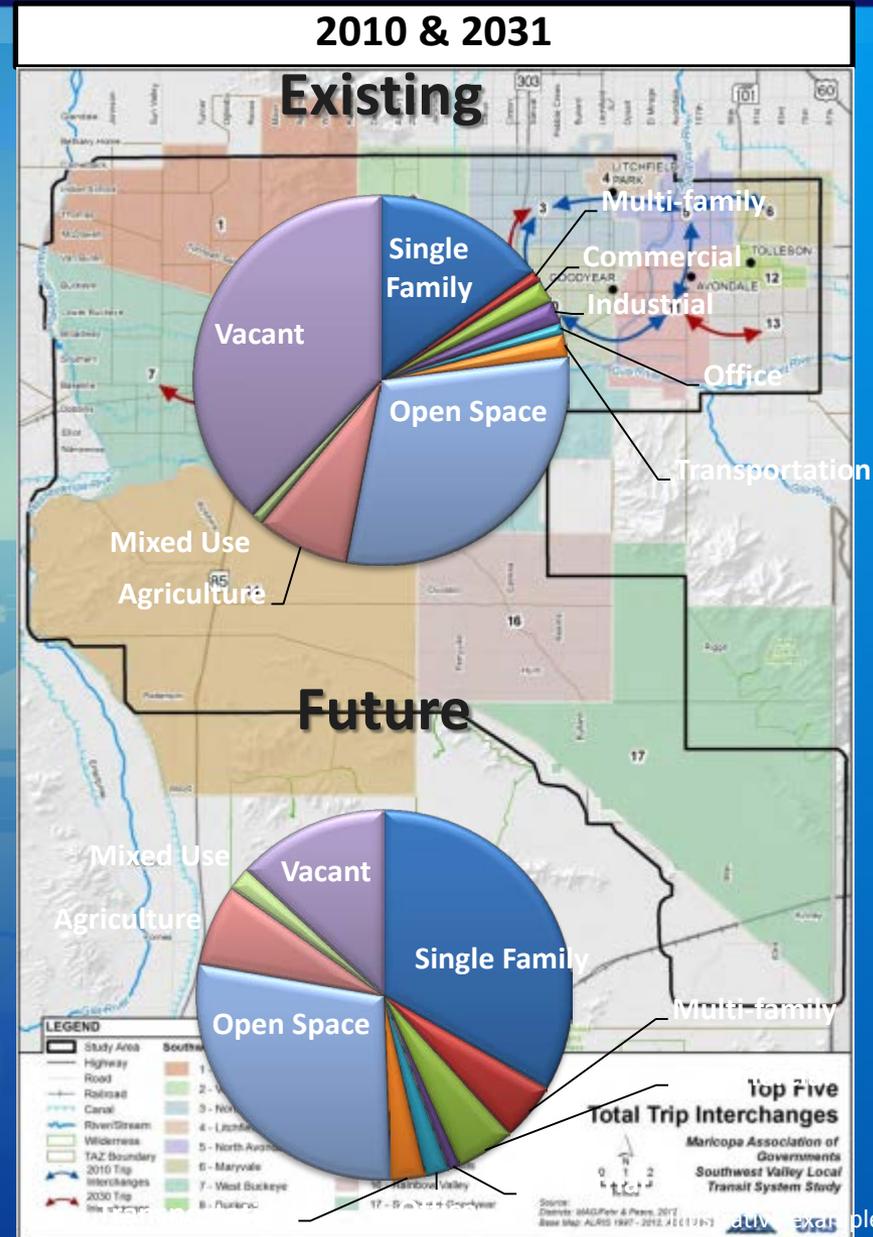

Study Approach

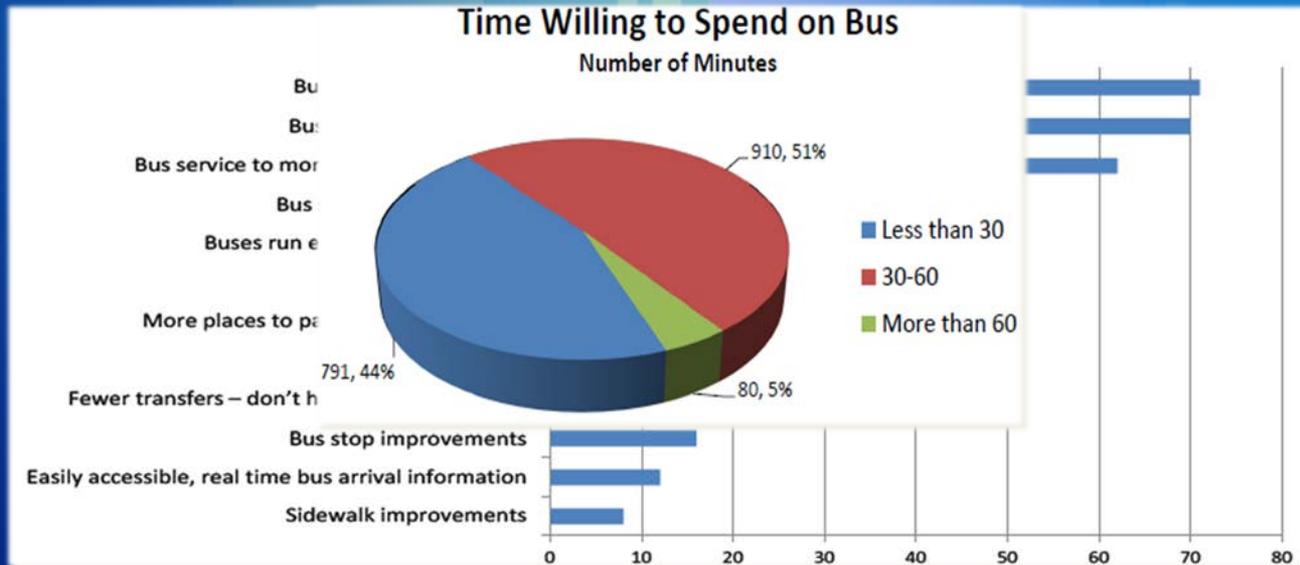

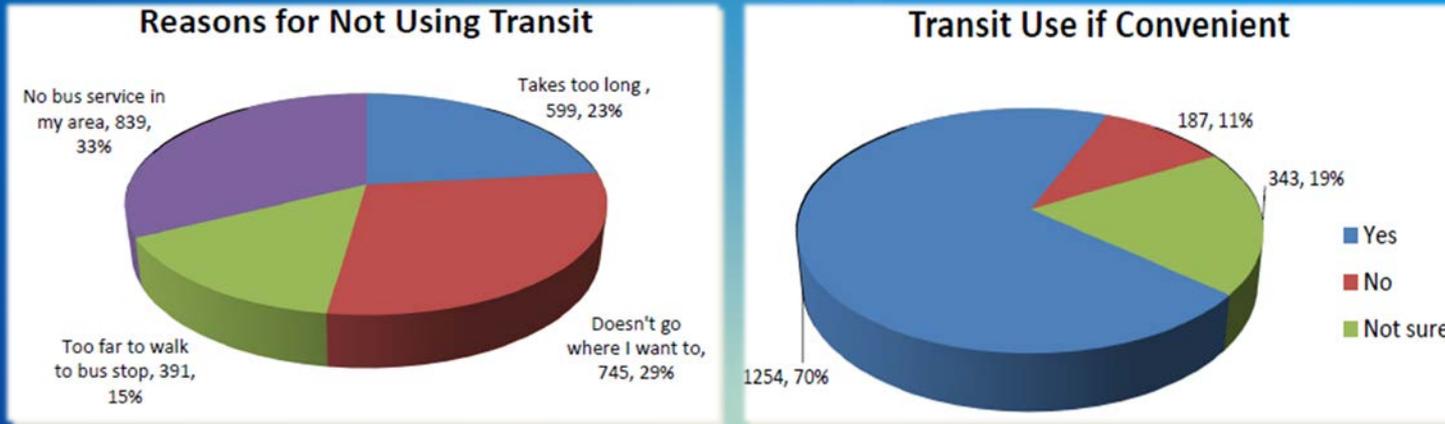

Data Analysis

- Existing and future:
 - Land use
 - Population density
 - Employment density
 - Density mix
 - Study Area Trips

Public Input – Survey

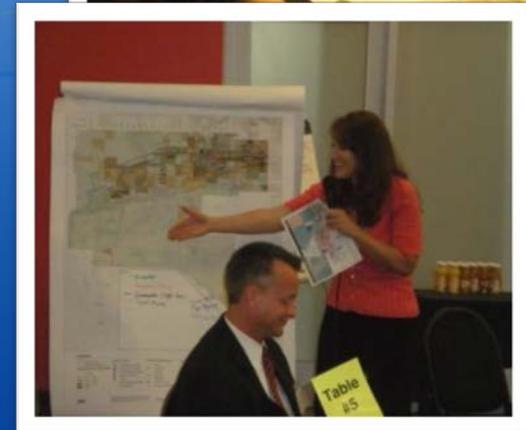

Self-selected survey

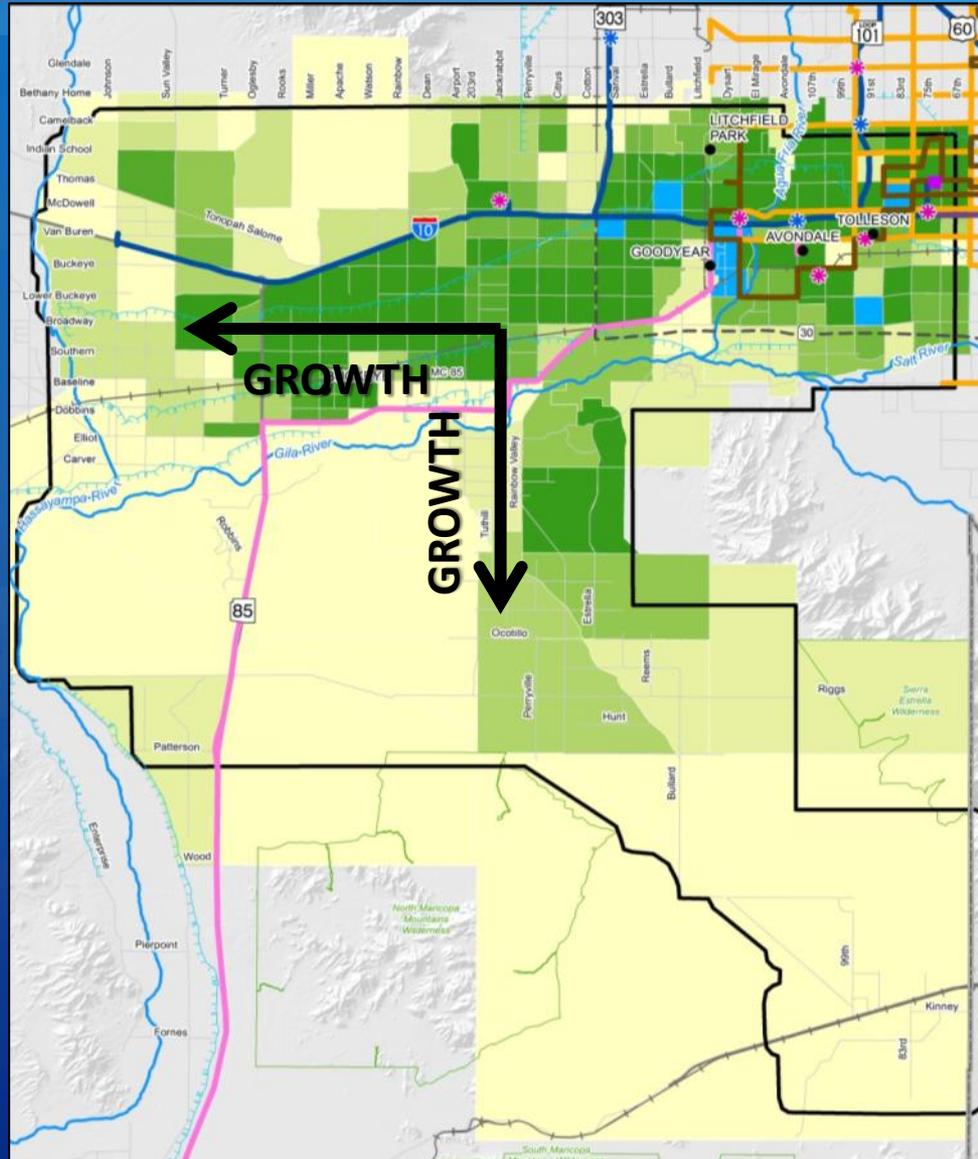

Public Input – Summit

- Key Input:
 - Serve key activity centers
 - Enhance multimodal connectivity
 - Promote ease of use

Results

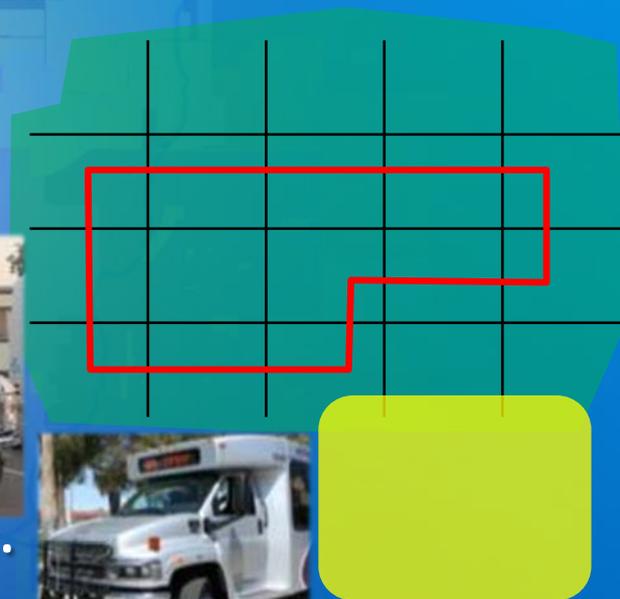

Plan Overview

- Recommended Service Area
- 3 Sub-areas with mix and intensity of service in order to maintain productivity goals

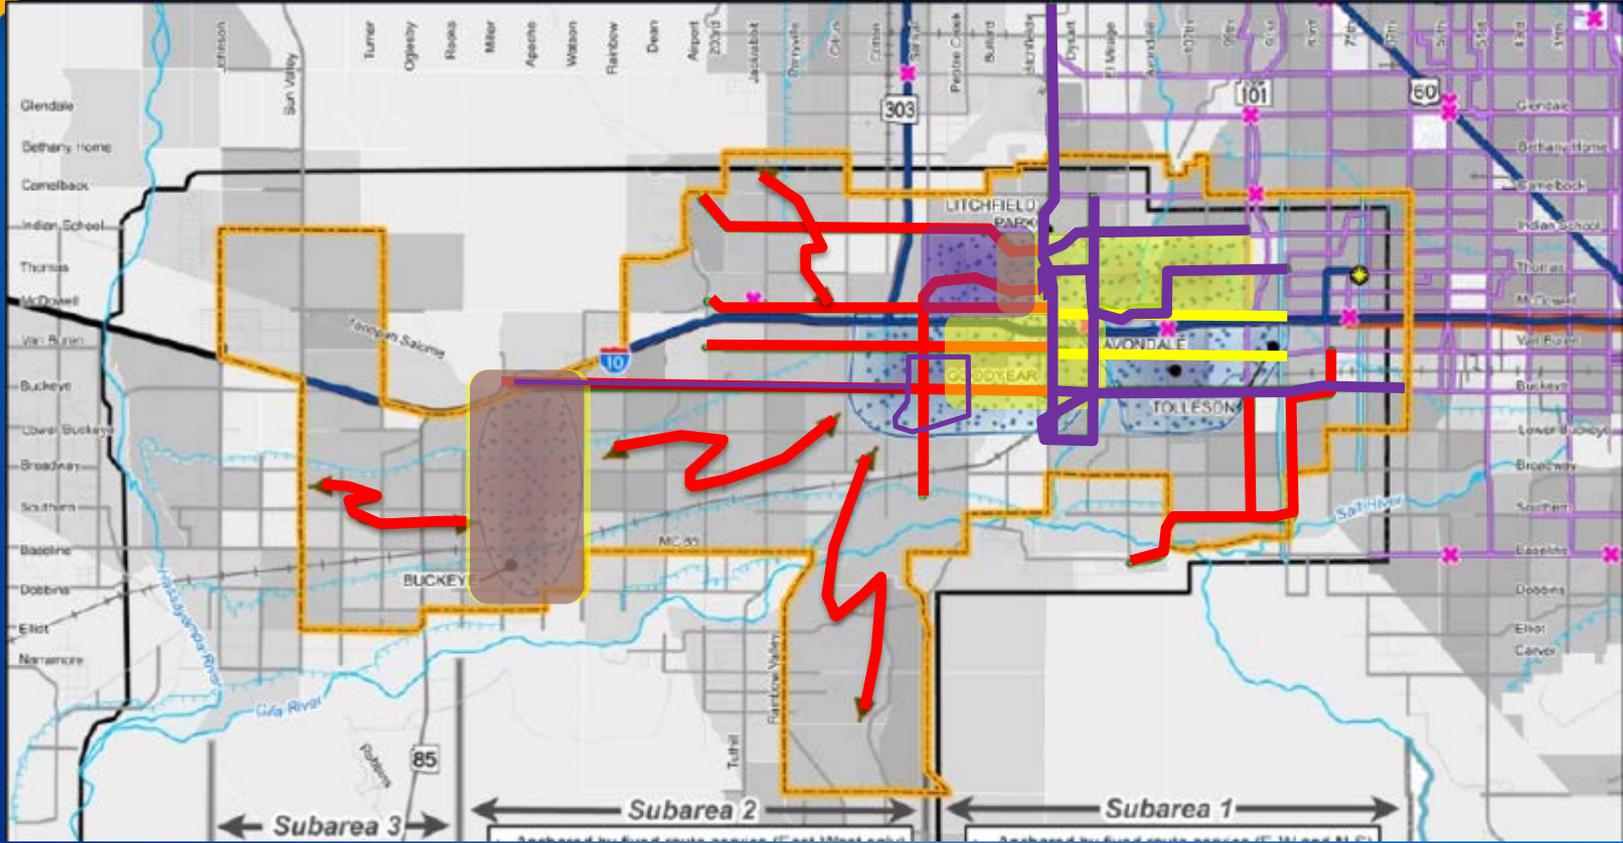

- Service Types

- Arterial grid route
- Circulators.....
- Flex routes.....
- Required ADA services.....

Recommendations

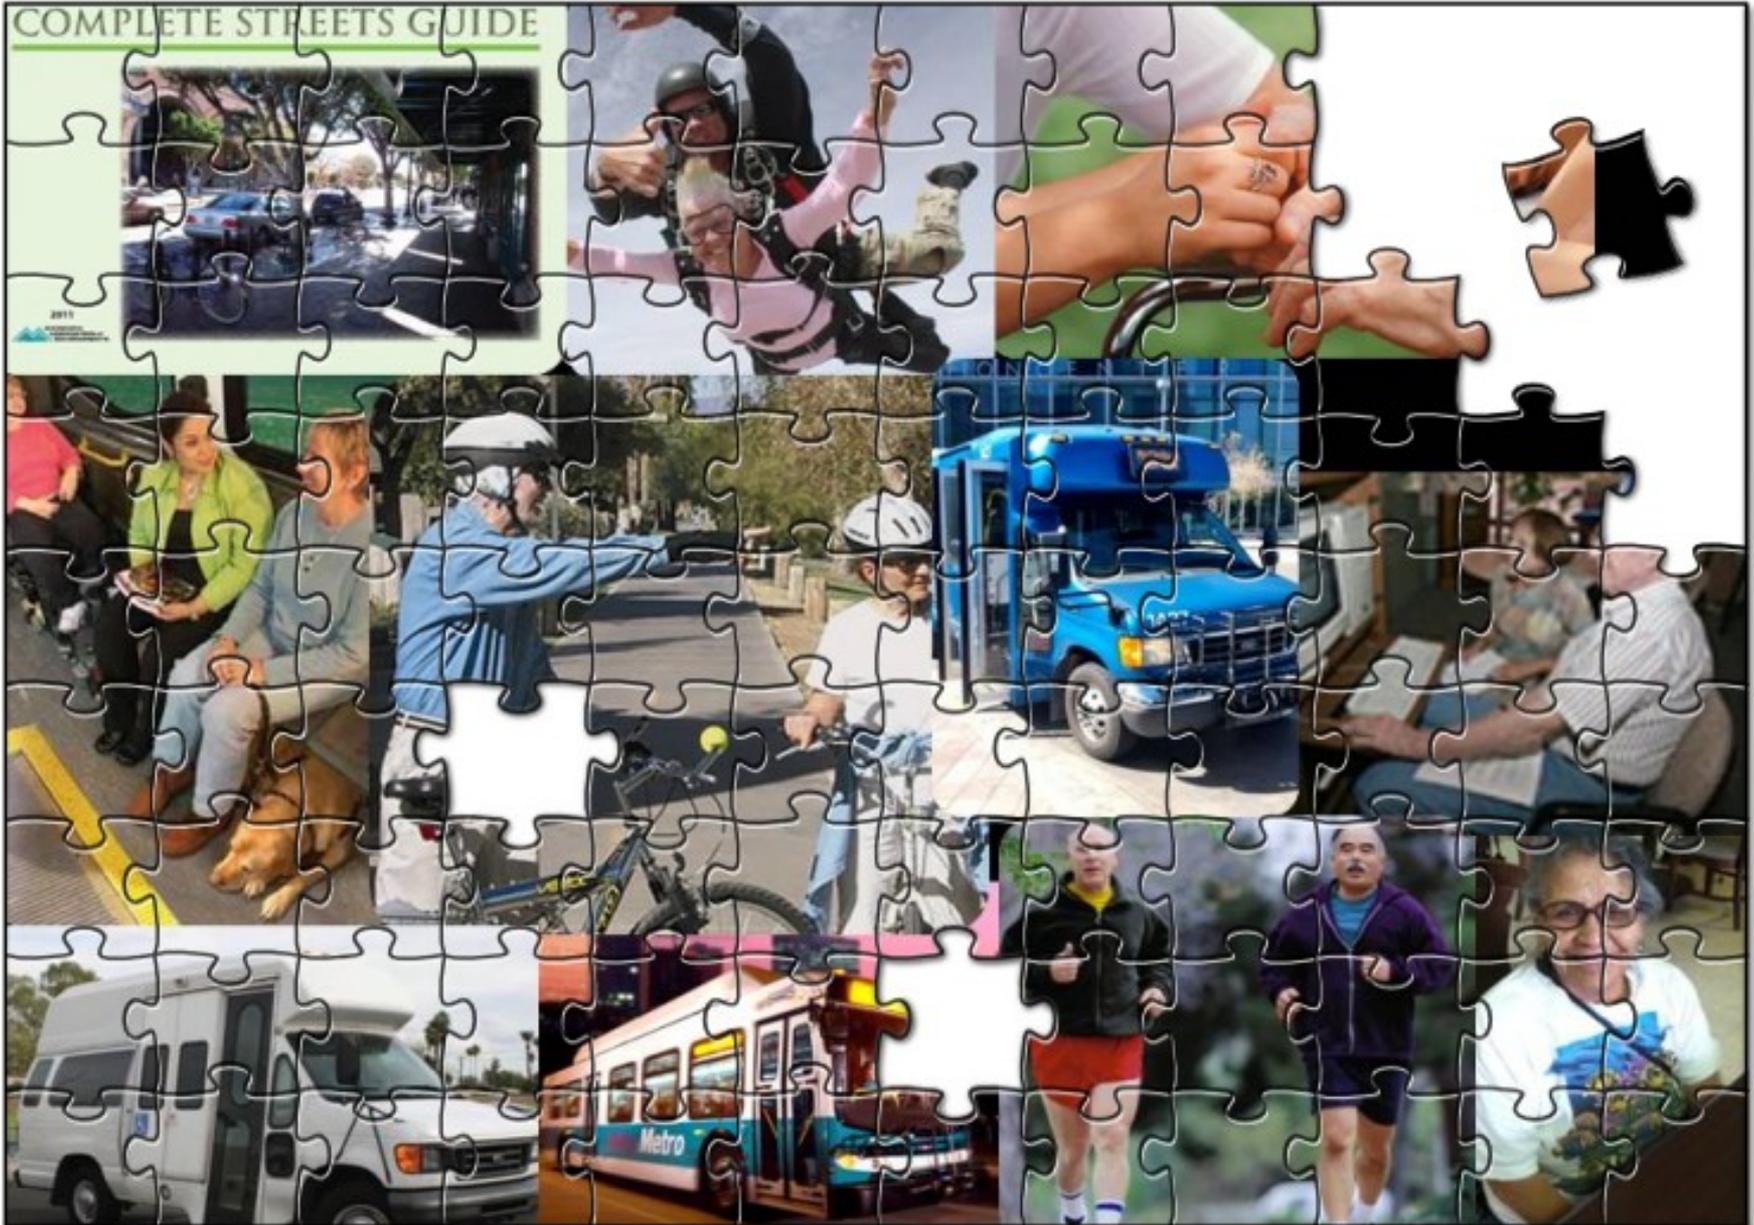

Public Involvement

Part of a Puzzle

management
Time
Cost savings
Economic benefits
Mobility
Air quality
Independence
Health benefits
Public interest
Local values
Less fuel consumption
Job generator
Reduces congestion
Cultural changes