- Review key elements of required Title VI plan.
- Discuss key Title VI plan deliverable dates.

What is Title VI?

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 asserts that “No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.” Additional protections are provided in other federal and state statutes and orders for religion, sex, economic status, disability, and age.

What is Title VI, Continued?

Recipients cannot, on the basis of race, color, or national origin either directly or through contractual means, take any of these actions:

- Deny program services, aids or benefits.
- Provide a different service, aid or benefit, or provide them in a manner different from what is provided to others.
- Segregate or separately treat individuals in any matter related to the receipt of any service, aid or benefit.
- Deny an opportunity to participate as a member of a planning, advisory or similar body that is an integral part of the program.
