SUBJECT:

Draft Disclaimer for SharePoint Sharing Site

SUMMARY:

At the September 20, 2012 Technology Advisory Group meeting, MAG staff were requested to develop a disclaimer for a site to share code and development resources relating to SharePoint. The following disclaimer would be prominently displayed on the site and users would need to acknowledge it to gain access. Initially, this acknowledgment would take place via e-mail before accounts were granted access to the site. Eventually, the disclaimer would appear as part of the site and require users to click an acceptance button.
